Part 1—Application and Operation

1. Title

This award is the Nursery Award 2010.

2. Commencement and transitional

2.1 This award commences on 1 January 2010.

2.2 The monetary obligations imposed on employers by this award may be absorbed into overaward payments. Nothing in this award requires an employer to maintain or increase any overaward payment.

2.3 This award contains transitional arrangements which specify when particular parts of the award come into effect. Some of the transitional arrangements are in clauses in the main part of the award. There are also transitional arrangements in Schedule A. The arrangements in Schedule A deal with:

- minimum wages and piecework rates
- casual or part-time loadings
- Saturday, Sunday, public holiday, evening or other penalties
- shift allowances/penalties.

2.4 Neither the making of this award nor the operation of any transitional arrangements is intended to result in a reduction in the take-home pay of employees covered by the award. On application by or on behalf of an employee who suffers a reduction in take-home pay as a result of the making of this award or the operation of any transitional arrangements, Fair Work Australia may make any order it considers appropriate to remedy the situation.

2.5 Fair Work Australia may review the transitional arrangements in this award and make a determination varying the award.

2.6 Fair Work Australia may review the transitional arrangements:

- (a) on its own initiative; or
- (b) on application by an employer, employee, organisation or outworker entity covered by the modern award; or
- (c) on application by an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more employers or employees that are covered by the modern award; or
- (d) in relation to outworker arrangements, on application by an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more outworkers to whom the arrangements relate.

- the packaging, storage and despatching of wine or grape spirit from a warehouse facility or other place of storage associated with a winery or wine distillery

3.2 Where this award refers to a condition of employment provided for in the NES, the reference is to the condition as defined in the NES.

4. Coverage

Varied by [PR994503]

4.1 This industry award covers employers throughout Australia in the nursery industry and their employees in the classifications listed in Schedule B—Classification Structure and Definitions to the exclusion of any other award.

4.2 Nursery industry means:

- (a) the propagation, planting, growing, cultivation, maintenance, sale, distribution or treating of plant material and associated nursery products in plant nurseries, flower, turf and tree farms or other similar enterprises;
- (b) the production and modification of growing media and clearing, treating or preparing of land for the propagation, planting, growing, cultivation, maintenance, sales and distribution or treating of plant material and associated products;
- (c) the processing, grading, packing or storing of plant material and associated products as part of a nursery; and
- (d) the despatching and distribution of plant material and associated products in connection with work under clauses 4.2(a) to (c).

4.3 Nursery industry does not mean:

- (a) the general retail industry as defined in the General Retail Industry Award 2010;
- (b) the wine industry;
- (c) silviculture and afforestation; or
- (d) sugar farming, sugar cane growing, sugar milling, sugar refining, sugar distilleries or sugar terminals.

4.4 The award does not cover an employee excluded from award coverage by the Act.

4.5 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

4.5 The award does not cover employees who are covered by a modern enterprise award, or an enterprise instrument (within the meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 (Cth)), or employers in relation to those employees.

New 4.6, 4.7 and 4.8 inserted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

4.6 The award does not cover employees who are covered by a State reference public sector modern award, or a State reference public sector transitional award (within the meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 (Cth)), or employers in relation to those employees.

4.7 This award covers any employer which supplies labour on an on-hire basis in the industry set out in clause 4.1 in respect of on-hire employees in classifications covered by this award, and those on-hire employees, while engaged in the performance of work for a business in that industry. This subclause operates subject to the exclusions from coverage in this award.

- 4.8 This award covers employers which provide group training services for apprentices and/or trainees engaged in the industry and/or parts of industry set out at clause 4.1 and those apprentices and/or trainees engaged by a group training service hosted by a company to perform work at a location where the activities described herein are being performed. This subclause operates subject to the exclusions from coverage in this award.

4.6 renumbered as 4.9 by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- 4.9 Where an employer is covered by more than one award, an employee of that employer is covered by the award classification which is most appropriate to the work performed by the employee and to the environment in which the employee normally performs the work.

NOTE: Where there is no classification for a particular employee in this award it is possible that the employer and that employee are covered by an award with occupational coverage.

5. Access to the award and the National Employment Standards

The employer must ensure that copies of this award and the NES are available to all employees to whom they apply either on a noticeboard which is conveniently located at or near the workplace or through electronic means, whichever makes them more accessible.

6. The National Employment Standards and this award

The NES and this award contain the minimum conditions of employment for employees covered by this award.

7. Award flexibility

- 7.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this award, an employer and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain terms of this award to meet the genuine individual needs of the employer and the individual employee. The terms the employer and the individual employee may agree to vary the application of are those concerning:

- (a) arrangements for when work is performed;
- (b) overtime rates;
- (c) penalty rates;
- (d) allowances; and
- (e) leave loading.

- 7.2 The employer and the individual employee must have genuinely made the agreement without coercion or duress.

Nursery Award 2010

- 7.3 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must:
- (a) be confined to a variation in the application of one or more of the terms listed in clause 7.1; and
 - (b) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would have been if no individual flexibility agreement had been agreed to.
- 7.4 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must also:
- (a) be in writing, name the parties to the agreement and be signed by the employer and the individual employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, the employee's parent or guardian;
 - (b) state each term of this award that the employer and the individual employee have agreed to vary;
 - (c) detail how the application of each term has been varied by agreement between the employer and the individual employee;
 - (d) detail how the agreement results in the individual employee being better off overall in relation to the individual employee's terms and conditions of employment; and
 - (e) state the date the agreement commences to operate.
- 7.5 The employer must give the individual employee a copy of the agreement and keep the agreement as a time and wages record.
- 7.6 Except as provided in clause 7.4(a) the agreement must not require the approval or consent of a person other than the employer and the individual employee.
- 7.7 An employer seeking to enter into an agreement must provide a written proposal to the employee. Where the employee's understanding of written English is limited the employer must take measures, including translation into an appropriate language, to ensure the employee understands the proposal.
- 7.8 The agreement may be terminated:
- (a) by the employer or the individual employee giving four weeks' notice of termination, in writing, to the other party and the agreement ceasing to operate at the end of the notice period; or
 - (b) at any time, by written agreement between the employer and the individual employee.
- 7.9 The right to make an agreement pursuant to this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, any provision for an agreement between an employer and an individual employee contained in any other term of this award.

Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

8. Consultation regarding major workplace change

8.1 Employer to notify

- (a) Where an employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer must notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and their representatives, if any.
- (b) Significant effects include termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations; and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this award makes provision for alteration of any of these matters an alteration is deemed not to have significant effect.

8.2 Employer to discuss change

- (a) The employer must discuss with the employees affected and their representatives, if any, the introduction of the changes referred to in clause 8.1, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees and measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees and must give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees and/or their representatives in relation to the changes.
- (b) The discussions must commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in clause 8.1.
- (c) For the purposes of such discussion, the employer must provide in writing to the employees concerned and their representatives, if any, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees provided that no employer is required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be contrary to the employer's interests.

9. Dispute resolution

Varied by [PR994503]

- 9.1 In the event of a dispute about a matter under this award, or a dispute in relation to the NES, in the first instance the parties must attempt to resolve the matter at the workplace by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and the relevant supervisor. If such discussions do not resolve the dispute, the parties will endeavour to resolve the dispute in a timely manner by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and more senior levels of management as appropriate.

Nursery Award 2010

9.2 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- 9.2 If a dispute about a matter arising under this award or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 9.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to Fair Work Australia.

9.3 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- 9.3 The parties may agree on the process to be utilised by Fair Work Australia including mediation, conciliation and consent arbitration.

9.4 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- 9.4 Where the matter in dispute remains unresolved, Fair Work Australia may exercise any method of dispute resolution permitted by the Act that it considers appropriate to ensure the settlement of the dispute.

- 9.5 An employer or employee may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany and/or represent them for the purposes of this clause.

- 9.6 While the dispute resolution procedure is being conducted, work must continue in accordance with this award and the Act. Subject to applicable occupational health and safety legislation, an employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with a direction by the employer to perform work, whether at the same or another workplace, that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

Part 3—Types of Employment and Termination of Employment

10. Types of employment

- 10.1 At the time of engagement an employer will inform each employee of the terms of their engagement and in particular whether they are to be full-time, part-time or casual.

10.2 Full-time employment

- (a) A full-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work 38 ordinary hours per week.
- (b) A full-time employee will be provided with a written statement setting out their classification, applicable pay scale and terms of engagement.

10.3 Part-time employment

- (a) A part-time employee is an employee who is engaged to perform a number of ordinary hours less than the full-time hours of 38 per week; and receives, on a pro rata basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of full-time employees who do the same kind of work.
- (b) At the time of engagement the employer and the part-time employee will agree in writing on a regular pattern of work, specifying at least the hours to be worked each day and which days of the week the employee will work.

Nursery Award 2010

- (c) Changes in hours may only be made by agreement between the employer and employee. Any agreed variation to the regular pattern of work will be recorded in writing.
- (d) A part-time employee will be entitled to payment for annual leave, long service leave, public holidays, personal/carer's leave and bereavement leave pursuant to this award on a pro rata basis to that of the equivalent full-time employee.
- (e) An employer is required to roster a part-time employee for a minimum of three consecutive hours on any shift.
- (f) The spread of ordinary working hours will be the same as those prescribed for full-time employees.
- (g) A part-time employee employed under the provisions of this clause must be paid for ordinary hours worked at the rate of 1/38th of the weekly rate prescribed for the class of work performed.
- (h) An employee who does not meet the definition of a part-time employee and who is not a full-time employee will be paid as a casual employee in accordance with clause 10.4.
- (i) Rosters
 - (i) A part-time employee's roster, but not the agreed number of hours, may be altered by the giving of notice in writing of seven days or in the case of an emergency, 48 hours, by the employer to the employee.
 - (ii) The rostered hours of part-time employees may be altered at any time by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee.
 - (iii) Rosters will not be changed except as provided in clause 10.3(i)(i) from week to week, or fortnight to fortnight, nor will they be changed to avoid any award entitlements.

10.4 Casual employment

- (a) A casual employee is an employee engaged as such and paid by the hour. An employer, when engaging a casual, must inform the employee that they are employed as a casual, stating by whom the employee is employed, their classification level and their rate of pay.
- (b) A casual employee must be paid per hour at the rate of 1/38th of the weekly rate prescribed for the class of work performed, plus 25%.
- (c) The casual loading is paid instead of annual leave, personal/carer's leave, notice of termination, redundancy benefits and the other entitlements of full-time or part-time employment.
- (d) Casual employees must be paid at the termination of each engagement, but may agree to be paid weekly or fortnightly.
- (e) On each occasion a casual employee is required to attend for work, casual employees are entitled to a minimum payment of three hours work at the appropriate rate.

11. Abandonment of employment

- 11.1 The absence of an employee from work for a continuous period exceeding three working days without the consent of the employer and without notification to the employer is evidence that the employee has abandoned their employment.
- 11.2 If within a period of 14 days from their last attendance at work or the date of their last absence in respect of which notification has been given or consent has been granted an employee has not established to the satisfaction of their employer that they were absent for reasonable cause, the employee is deemed to have abandoned their employment.
- 11.3 Termination of employment by abandonment in accordance with this clause operates as from the date of the last attendance at work or the last day's absence in respect of which consent was granted, or the date of the last absence in respect of which notification was given to the employer, whichever is the latter.

12. Termination of employment

- 12.1 Notice of termination is provided for in the NES.
- 12.2 Notice of termination by an employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give the required notice the employer may withhold from any monies due to the employee on termination under this award or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the employee would have been paid under this award in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the employee.

12.3 Job search entitlement

Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, an employee must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

13. Redundancy

Varied by [PR994503, PR503642]

- 13.1 Redundancy pay is provided for in the NES.
- 13.2 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated and the employer may, at the employer's option, make payment instead of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

13.3 Employee leaving during notice period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

13.4 Job search entitlement

- (a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration is sufficient.
- (c) This entitlement applies instead of clause 12.3.

13.5 Transitional provisions – NAPSA employees

13.5 renamed by [PR503642 ppc 01Jan11]

13.5(a) substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (a) Subject to clause 13.5(b), an employee whose employment is terminated by an employer is entitled to redundancy pay in accordance with the terms of a notional agreement preserving a State award:
 - (i) that would have applied to the employee immediately prior to 1 January 2010, if the employee had at that time been in their current circumstances of employment and no agreement-based transitional instrument or enterprise agreement had applied to the employee; and
 - (ii) that would have entitled the employee to redundancy pay in excess of the employee's entitlement to redundancy pay, if any, under the NES.

13.5(b) substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (b) The employee's entitlement to redundancy pay under the notional agreement preserving a State award is limited to the amount of redundancy pay which exceeds the employee's entitlement to redundancy pay, if any, under the NES.
- (c) This clause does not operate to diminish an employee's entitlement to redundancy pay under any other instrument.
- (d) Clause 13.5 ceases to operate on 31 December 2014.

13.6 Transitional provisions – Division 2B State employees

13.6 inserted by [PR503642 ppc 01Jan11]

- (a) Subject to clause 13.6(b), an employee whose employment is terminated by an employer is entitled to redundancy pay in accordance with the terms of a Division 2B State award:
 - (i) that would have applied to the employee immediately prior to 1 January 2011, if the employee had at that time been in their current circumstances of employment and no Division 2B State employment agreement or enterprise agreement had applied to the employee; and
 - (ii) that would have entitled the employee to redundancy pay in excess of the employee’s entitlement to redundancy pay, if any, under the NES.
- (b) The employee’s entitlement to redundancy pay under the Division 2B State award is limited to the amount of redundancy pay which exceeds the employee’s entitlement to redundancy pay, if any, under the NES.
- (c) This clause does not operate to diminish an employee’s entitlement to redundancy pay under any other instrument.
- (d) Clause 13.6 ceases to operate on 31 December 2014.

Part 4—Minimum Wages and Related Matters

14. Classifications

Employees will be classified in accordance with the classification descriptions contained in Schedule B—Classification Structure and Definitions of this award.

15. Minimum wages

Varied by [PR994503, PR997913]

15.1 The minimum wages for an adult employee, other than one specified in clause 15.3, are set out in the following table:

15.1 varied by [PR997913 ppc 01Jul10]

Classification	Minimum weekly wage $	Minimum hourly wage $
Grade 1A	569.90	15.00
Grade 1B	586.50	15.43
Grade 2	597.10	15.71
Grade 3	626.00	16.47
Grade 4	663.60	17.46
Grade 5	733.10	19.29

Nursery Award 2010

Classification	Minimum weekly wage $	Minimum hourly wage $
Grade 6	798.30	21.01

- 15.2 For the purposes of clause 15.1, minimum weekly wage means any entitlement which an employee would receive for performing 38 hours of work.

15.3 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- 15.3 The following employees are not entitled to the minimum wages set out in the table in clause 15.1:

(a) an employee receiving a supported wage (refer to Schedule D); or

15.3(b) varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

(b) an employee covered by clauses 16—Apprentices, 17—Junior wages or 18—National training wage.

15.4 Higher duties

An employee engaged for more than two hours during one day on duties carrying a higher minimum wage than their ordinary classification must be paid the higher minimum wage for such day or shift. If an employee is so engaged for two hours or less during one day, they must be paid the higher minimum wage for the time so worked

16. Apprentices

- 16.1 Any apprentice, other than as provided in clause 16.2, must be paid the following percentage of the Grade 4 rate of pay:

Year of apprenticeship	%
1st year	50
2nd year	63
3rd year	75
4th year	90

- 16.2 A trainee apprentice in New South Wales must be paid the following percentage of the Grade 4 rate of pay:

Year of apprenticeship	%
1st year	58
2nd year	67
3rd year	76
4th year	91

- 16.3 Clause 16.2 will cease to operate on 31 December 2014.

17. Junior wages

Junior employees must be paid the following percentage of the appropriate wage rate in clause 15—Minimum wages.

Age	% of appropriate wage rate
Under 16 years of age	50
16 years of age	60
17 years of age	70
18 years of age	80
19 years of age	90
20 years of age	100

20. Allowances

Varied by [PR998136]

20.1 All purpose allowances

The following allowances apply for all purposes of this award:

(a) First aid allowance

An employee who has been trained to render first aid and who is the current holder of appropriate first aid qualifications such as a certificate from the St John Ambulance or similar body must be paid a weekly allowance of 70% of the standard rate if appointed by their employer to perform first aid duty.

(b) Meal allowance

20.1(b) varied by [PR998136 ppc 01Jul10]

An employee required to work overtime for more than two hours after the employee's ordinary ceasing time without having been notified before leaving work on the previous day that the employee will be required to work overtime, will be provided free of cost with a suitable meal, and if the work extends into a second meal break, another meal. In the event of the meal not being supplied the employee is entitled to an amount of $11.13 for each meal.

(c) Tool and equipment allowance

Where the employer requires an employee to supply their own tools and equipment, the employer must reimburse the employee for the cost of supplying such tools and equipment. This clause does not apply where the tools and equipment are paid for by the employer.

(d) Travelling allowance

Where an employee is required to travel from one place to another, the time occupied in travelling will be counted as time worked, and paid for as such. Where an employee is compelled by their duties to spend the night away from home or the property at which the employee is employed (whichever is the employee's normal place of sleeping during employment) the employer will reimburse the employee for the demonstrable cost of suitable accommodation. This clause will not apply where the employer provides the employee with suitable accommodation free of charge.

20.2 Adjustment of expense related allowances

At the time of any adjustment to the standard rate, each expense related allowance will be increased by the relevant adjustment factor. The relevant adjustment factor for this purpose is the percentage movement in the applicable index figure most recently published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics since the allowance was last adjusted.

The applicable index figure is the index figure published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics for the Eight Capitals Consumer Price Index (Cat No. 6401.0), as follows:

Allowance	Applicable Consumer Price Index figure
Meal allowance	Take away and fast foods sub-group

21. District allowances

Varied by [PR994503]

21.1 Northern Territory

An employee in the Northern Territory is entitled to payment of a district allowance in accordance with the terms of an award made under the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (Cth):

21.1(a) substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (a) that would have applied to the employee immediately prior to 1 January 2010, if the employee had at that time been in their current circumstances of employment and no agreement-based transitional instrument or enterprise agreement had applied to the employee; and
- (b) that would have entitled the employee to payment of a district allowance.

21.2 Western Australia

21.2 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

An employee in Western Australia is entitled to payment of a district allowance in accordance with the terms of a notional agreement preserving a State award or an award made under the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (Cth):

- (a) that would have applied to the employee immediately prior to 1 January 2010, if the employee had at that time been in their current circumstances of employment and no agreement-based transitional instrument or enterprise agreement had applied to the employee; and
- (b) that would have entitled the employee to payment of a district allowance.

21.3 This clause ceases to operate on 31 December 2014.

22. Payment of wages

22.1 Period of payment

Wages must be paid weekly, fortnightly or monthly.

22.2 Method of payment

Wages must be paid by cash, cheque or electronic funds transfer into the employee's nominated bank or other recognised financial institution account.

22.3 Payment of wages on termination of employment

On termination of employment, wages due to an employee must be paid on the day of termination or forwarded to the employee on the next working day.

23. Superannuation

Varied by [PR992289, PR994503]

23.1 Superannuation legislation

- (a) Superannuation legislation, including the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth) and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993 (Cth), deals with the superannuation rights and obligations of employers and employees. Under superannuation legislation individual employees generally have the opportunity to choose their own superannuation fund. If an employee does not choose a superannuation fund, any superannuation fund nominated in the award covering the employee applies.
- (b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

23.2 Employer contributions

An employer must make such superannuation contributions to a superannuation fund for the benefit of an employee as will avoid the employer being required to pay the superannuation guarantee charge under superannuation legislation with respect to that employee.

23.3 Voluntary employee contributions

- (a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an employee may, in writing, authorise their employer to pay on behalf of the employee a specified amount from the post-taxation wages of the employee into the same superannuation fund as the employer makes the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 23.2.
- (b) An employee may adjust the amount the employee has authorised their employer to pay from the wages of the employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months' written notice to their employer.
- (c) The employer must pay the amount authorised under clauses 23.3(a) or (b) no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the deduction authorised under clauses 23.3(a) or (b) was made.

23.4 Superannuation fund

23.4 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the employer is required to make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 23.2 to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the employee, the employer must make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 23.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 23.3(a) or (b) to one of the following superannuation funds or its successor:

23.4(a) substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (a) Primesuper;
- (b) AustSafe Super

23.4(c) deleted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

23.4(d) to (f) renumbered as 23.4(c) to (e) by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (c) Tasplan;
- (d) Sunsuper;
- (e) Asset Limited;

New 23.4(g) inserted by [PR992289 from 19Jan10]

23.4(g) renumbered as 23.4(f) by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (f) Westscheme; or

23.4(g) renumbered as 23.4(h) by [PR992289 from 19Jan10]

23.4(h) renumbered as 23.4(g) by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (g) any superannuation fund to which the employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund.

Part 5—Hours of Work and Related Matters

24. Ordinary hours of work and rostering

Varied by [PR994503]

24.1 Maximum weekly hours and requests for flexible working arrangements are provided for in the NES.

24.2 Ordinary hours of work

- (a) The ordinary hours of work for full-time employees are an average of 38 per week but not exceeding 152 hours in 28 days.
- (b) The ordinary hours of work may be worked between the hours of 6.00 am and 6.00 pm on any five out of seven days. Provided that the ordinary hours of work may be worked between 6.00 am and 9.00 pm on one day per week between Monday and Friday.
- (c) Subject to this clause, the ordinary hours of work will not exceed eight hours on any day, provided that by arrangement between an employer and an employee ordinary working hours greater than eight but not exceeding 10 on any day may be worked subject to:
 - (i) the employer and employee concerned being guided by relevant occupational health and safety provisions;
 - (ii) suitable roster arrangements being made; and
 - (iii) proper supervision being provided.
- (d) The rate of pay for ordinary hours worked on a Saturday will be at the rate of 125% of the appropriate minimum wage calculated hourly.

24.2(e) varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (e) The rate of pay for ordinary hours worked on a Sunday will be at the rate of 200% of the appropriate minimum wage calculated hourly.
- (f) All time worked outside the ordinary hours of work will be overtime.

25. Breaks

25.1 An unpaid meal break of not less than 30 minutes and not more than one hour will be allowed each day, to be taken not later than five hours after commencing ordinary hours of work. Provided that where there is mutual agreement between employer and individual employee, such meal break may be taken as agreed.

25.2 All work performed on the instruction of the employer during a meal break will be paid for at the rate of 200% of the appropriate minimum wage. Such payment will continue until the employee is released for a meal break of not less than 30 minutes.

25.3 Employees will be allowed a paid rest break of 10 minutes each morning. Where agreement is reached between the employer and employee for additional rest breaks, such rest breaks will be unpaid and in addition to the employee's ordinary hours of work.

26. Overtime and penalty rates

26.1 Payment for working overtime

The rate of pay for overtime will be 150% of the appropriate minimum wage for the first three hours and 200% thereafter, except on Sunday when the rate will be 200% for all time worked.

26.2 Payment for working on public holidays

(a) All work performed on public holidays will be paid for at the rate of 250%.

(b) All employees required to work on a public holiday will be paid for a minimum of four hours.

26.3 Call-back

An employee recalled to work overtime after leaving the employer's business premises will be paid for a minimum of three hours work at the appropriate rate for each time so recalled. This subclause does not apply in cases where it is customary for an employee to return to the employer's premises to perform a specific job outside the employee's ordinary working hours, or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the completion or commencement of ordinary working time.

Part 6—Leave and Public Holidays

27. Annual leave

Varied by [PR994503]

27.1 Annual leave is provided for in the NES. Annual leave does not apply to a casual employee.

27.2 Conversion to hourly entitlement

An employer may reach agreement with an employee to convert the annual leave entitlement in the NES to an hourly entitlement for administrative ease (e.g. 152 hours for a full-time employee entitled to four weeks annual leave).

27.3 Payment for period of annual leave

An employee under this award, before going on annual leave, must be paid the wages they would have received in respect of the ordinary hours the employee would have worked had the employee not been on leave during the relevant period.

27.4 Annual leave loading

During a period of annual leave an employee must also be paid a loading of 17.5% of the wages prescribed in clause 27.3.

27.5 Excessive leave

27.5 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

Notwithstanding s.88 of the Act, if an employer has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employee as to the timing of taking annual leave, the employer can require the employee to take annual leave by giving not less than four weeks' notice of the time when such leave is to be taken if:

- (a) at the time the direction is given, the employee has eight weeks or more of annual leave accrued; and
- (b) the amount of annual leave the employee is directed to take is less than or equal to a quarter of the amount of leave accrued.

27.6 Paid leave in advance of accrued entitlement

By agreement between an employer and an employee a period of annual leave may be taken in advance of the entitlement accruing. Provided that if leave is taken in advance and the employment terminates before the entitlement has accrued the employer may make a corresponding deduction from any money due to the employee on termination.

27.7 Transfer of business

27.7 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

Where a business is transferred from one employer to another, the period of continuous service that an employee had with the old employer must be deemed to be service with the new employer and taken into account when calculating annual leave. However, an employee is not entitled to leave or payment instead of any period in respect of which leave has been taken or paid for.

27.8 Proportionate leave on termination

On termination of employment, an employee must be paid for leave accrued that has not been taken at the appropriate wage calculated in accordance with clause 27.3.

27.9 Time of taking leave

- (a) Annual leave is to be taken within six months after the annual entitlement becomes due except where otherwise agreed, unless to do so would be unreasonable in the circumstances. The employer must give one month's notice of any requirement for the employee to take accrued leave.

- (b) The employer may require annual leave to be taken during periods of business close-down or when the business cannot open due to restrictions on opening hours due to State or Federal legislation. The employer may also require leave to be taken at certain times of the year because of particular seasonal requirements.

28. Personal/carer's leave and compassionate leave

Personal/carer's leave and compassionate leave are provided for in the NES.

29. Community service leave

Community service leave is provided for in the NES.

30. Public holidays

30.1 Public holidays are provided for in the NES.

30.2 An employer and a majority of employees may agree to substitute another day for a public holiday. If either the public holiday or the substitute day is worked, public holiday penalties must be paid. If both days are worked, one day at the election of the employee must be paid at public holiday rates.

Schedule A—Transitional Provisions

Varied by [PR994503, PR503642]

A.1 General

A.1.1 The provisions of this schedule deal with minimum obligations only.

A.1.2 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.1.2 The provisions of this schedule are to be applied:

- (a) when there is a difference, in money or percentage terms, between a provision in a relevant transitional minimum wage instrument (including the transitional default casual loading) or award-based transitional instrument on the one hand and an equivalent provision in this award on the other;
- (b) when a loading or penalty in a relevant transitional minimum wage instrument or award-based transitional instrument has no equivalent provision in this award;
- (c) when a loading or penalty in this award has no equivalent provision in a relevant transitional minimum wage instrument or award-based transitional instrument; or
- (d) when there is a loading or penalty in this award but there is no relevant transitional minimum wage instrument or award-based transitional instrument.

A.2 Minimum wages – existing minimum wage lower

A.2.1 The following transitional arrangements apply to an employer which, immediately prior to 1 January 2010:

- (a) was obliged,

A.2.1(b) substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

- (b) but for the operation of an agreement-based transitional instrument or an enterprise agreement would have been obliged, or
- (c) if it had been an employer in the industry or of the occupations covered by this award would have been obliged

by a transitional minimum wage instrument and/or an award-based transitional instrument to pay a minimum wage lower than that in this award for any classification of employee.

A.2.2 In this clause minimum wage includes:

- (a) a minimum wage for a junior employee, an employee to whom training arrangements apply and an employee with a disability;
- (b) a piecework rate; and
- (c) any applicable industry allowance.

Nursery Award 2010

A.2.3 Prior to the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2010 the employer must pay no less than the minimum wage in the relevant transitional minimum wage instrument and/or award-based transitional instrument for the classification concerned.

A.2.4 The difference between the minimum wage for the classification in this award and the minimum wage in clause A.2.3 is referred to as the transitional amount.

A.2.5 From the following dates the employer must pay no less than the minimum wage for the classification in this award minus the specified proportion of the transitional amount:

First full pay period on or after

1 July 2010	80%
1 July 2011	60%
1 July 2012	40%
1 July 2013	20%

A.2.6 The employer must apply any increase in minimum wages in this award resulting from an annual wage review.

A.2.7 These provisions cease to operate from the beginning of the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

A.3 Minimum wages – existing minimum wage higher

A.3.1 The following transitional arrangements apply to an employer which, immediately prior to 1 January 2010:

(a) was obliged,

A.3.1(b) substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

(b) but for the operation of an agreement-based transitional instrument or an enterprise agreement would have been obliged, or

(c) if it had been an employer in the industry or of the occupations covered by this award would have been obliged

by a transitional minimum wage instrument and/or an award-based transitional instrument to pay a minimum wage higher than that in this award for any classification of employee.

A.3.2 In this clause minimum wage includes:

(a) a minimum wage for a junior employee, an employee to whom training arrangements apply and an employee with a disability;

(b) a piecework rate; and

(c) any applicable industry allowance.

A.3.3 Prior to the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2010 the employer must pay no less than the minimum wage in the relevant transitional minimum wage instrument and/or award-based transitional instrument for the classification concerned.

A.3.4 The difference between the minimum wage for the classification in this award and the minimum wage in clause A.3.3 is referred to as the transitional amount.

A.3.5 From the following dates the employer must pay no less than the minimum wage for the classification in this award plus the specified proportion of the transitional amount:

First full pay period on or after

1 July 2010	80%
1 July 2011	60%
1 July 2012	40%
1 July 2013	20%

A.3.6 The employer must apply any increase in minimum wages in this award resulting from an annual wage review. If the transitional amount is equal to or less than any increase in minimum wages resulting from the 2010 annual wage review the transitional amount is to be set off against the increase and the other provisions of this clause will not apply.

A.3.7 These provisions cease to operate from the beginning of the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

A.4 Loadings and penalty rates

For the purposes of this schedule loading or penalty means a:

- casual or part-time loading;
- Saturday, Sunday, public holiday, evening or other penalty;
- shift allowance/penalty.

A.5 Loadings and penalty rates – existing loading or penalty rate lower

A.5.1 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.5.1 The following transitional arrangements apply to an employer which, immediately prior to 1 January 2010:

- (a) was obliged,
- (b) but for the operation of an agreement-based transitional instrument or an enterprise agreement would have been obliged, or
- (c) if it had been an employer in the industry or of the occupations covered by this award would have been obliged

by the terms of a transitional minimum wage instrument or an award-based transitional instrument to pay a particular loading or penalty at a lower rate than the equivalent loading or penalty in this award for any classification of employee.

Nursery Award 2010

A.5.2 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.5.2 Prior to the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2010 the employer must pay no less than the loading or penalty in the relevant transitional minimum wage instrument or award-based transitional instrument for the classification concerned.

A.5.3 The difference between the loading or penalty in this award and the rate in clause A.5.2 is referred to as the transitional percentage.

A.5.4 From the following dates the employer must pay no less than the loading or penalty in this award minus the specified proportion of the transitional percentage:

First full pay period on or after

1 July 2010	80%
1 July 2011	60%
1 July 2012	40%
1 July 2013	20%

A.5.5 These provisions cease to operate from the beginning of the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

A.6 Loadings and penalty rates – existing loading or penalty rate higher

A.6.1 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.6.1 The following transitional arrangements apply to an employer which, immediately prior to 1 January 2010:

- (a) was obliged,
- (b) but for the operation of an agreement-based transitional instrument or an enterprise agreement would have been obliged, or
- (c) if it had been an employer in the industry or of the occupations covered by this award would have been obliged

by the terms of a transitional minimum wage instrument or an award-based transitional instrument to pay a particular loading or penalty at a higher rate than the equivalent loading or penalty in this award, or to pay a particular loading or penalty and there is no equivalent loading or penalty in this award, for any classification of employee.

A.6.2 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.6.2 Prior to the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2010 the employer must pay no less than the loading or penalty in the relevant transitional minimum wage instrument or award-based transitional instrument.

A.6.3 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.6.3 The difference between the loading or penalty in this award and the rate in clause A.6.2 is referred to as the transitional percentage. Where there is no equivalent loading or penalty in this award, the transitional percentage is the rate in A.6.2.

Nursery Award 2010

A.6.4 From the following dates the employer must pay no less than the loading or penalty in this award plus the specified proportion of the transitional percentage:

First full pay period on or after

1 July 2010	80%
1 July 2011	60%
1 July 2012	40%
1 July 2013	20%

A.6.5 These provisions cease to operate from the beginning of the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

A.7 Loadings and penalty rates – no existing loading or penalty rate

A.7.1 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.7.1 The following transitional arrangements apply to an employer not covered by clause A.5 or A.6 in relation to a particular loading or penalty in this award.

A.7.2 Prior to the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2010 the employer need not pay the loading or penalty in this award.

A.7.3 substituted by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

A.7.3 From the following dates the employer must pay no less than the following percentage of the loading or penalty in this award:

First full pay period on or after

1 July 2010	20%
1 July 2011	40%
1 July 2012	60%
1 July 2013	80%

A.7.4 These provisions cease to operate from the beginning of the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

A.8 Former Division 2B employers

A.8 inserted by [PR503642 ppc 01Jan11]

A.8.1 This clause applies to an employer which, immediately prior to 1 January 2011, was covered by a Division 2B State award.

A.8.2 All of the terms of a Division 2B State award applying to a Division 2B employer are continued in effect until the end of the full pay period commencing before 1 February 2011.

A.8.3 Subject to this clause, from the first full pay period commencing on or after 1 February 2011 a Division 2B employer must pay no less than the minimum wages, loadings and penalty rates which it would be required to pay under this Schedule if it had been a national system employer immediately prior to 1 January 2010.

Nursery Award 2010

- A.8.4 Despite clause A.8.3, where a minimum wage, loading or penalty rate in a Division 2B State award immediately prior to 1 February 2011 was lower than the corresponding minimum wage, loading or penalty rate in this award, nothing in this Schedule requires a Division 2B employer to pay more than the minimum wage, loading or penalty rate in this award.
- A.8.5 Despite clause A.8.3, where a minimum wage, loading or penalty rate in a Division 2B State award immediately prior to 1 February 2011 was higher than the corresponding minimum wage, loading or penalty rate in this award, nothing in this Schedule requires a Division 2B employer to pay less than the minimum wage, loading or penalty rate in this award.
- A.8.6 In relation to a Division 2B employer this Schedule commences to operate from the beginning of the first full pay period on or after 1 January 2011 and ceases to operate from the beginning of the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

Schedule B—Classification Structure and Definitions

Grade 1A

Employees in this grade have no previous experience in the industry and no formal qualifications. They carry out general nursery and labouring duties of a routine and repetitive and/or manual nature, mainly under supervision, for a period of no longer than three months.

Grade 1B

Employees in this grade have three months experience in the industry. They perform and are accountable for nursery tasks as directed within the skill levels set out below. They work within established routines, methods and procedures. Supervision is direct.

Employees may be required to train other employees in the skills of their own grade by means of personal instruction and demonstration.

Employees will be graded at this level where the principal functions of their employment, as determined by the employer, require the exercise of any one or more of the skill levels set out below:

- assisting with potting machines, seeding machines, bagging machines, transplanting machines, grading machines, etc.;
- assisting with spray application;
- cleaning;
- collecting cuttage, budwood or scions;
- flower bunching;
- general errands;
- general/labouring duties;
- grafting and budding;
- irrigation;
- labelling, stacking and preparation of stock for sale;
- mixing soil, container filling, container assembly;
- moving plants;
- order selection and assembly;
- packing shelves;
- packing plants and seedlings;
- picking and grading;
- plant care and ground maintenance;

Nursery Award 2010

- potting;
- preparing and sticking cuttings;
- spacing and moving plants;
- transplanting;
- tubing;
- unloading/receiving materials;
- using towing and/or carry-all vehicles etc.;
- watering; and
- weeding.

Grade 2

Employees in this grade are capable of performing Grade 1B duties but in addition are required to perform nursery tasks using a more extensive range of skills and knowledge at a higher level than required in Grade 1B. They are responsible and accountable for their own work which is performed within established routines, methods and procedures. Supervision is routine.

Employees may be required to train other employees in the skills of their own grade and below by means of personal instruction and demonstration.

Employees will be graded at this level where the principal functions of their employment, as determined by the employer, require the exercise of any one or more of the skill levels set out below:

- answering phone;
- basic data entry;
- basic plant maintenance;
- control and maintenance of irrigation equipment;
- handling direct enquiries;
- disease and pest control;
- driving tractors with implements;
- fertigation;
- filing; and
- may be in charge of one assistant of a lower grade.

Grade 3

Employees in this grade are capable of performing Grade 1B and 2 duties but in addition are required to perform nursery tasks using a more extensive range of skills and knowledge at a higher level than required in Grade 2. They are responsible and accountable for their own work which is performed within established routines, methods and procedures. Supervision is routine.

Nursery Award 2010

Employees may be required to train other employees in the skills of their own grade and below by means of personal instruction and demonstration.

Employees will be graded at this level where the principal functions of their employment, as determined by the employer, require the exercise of any one or more of the skill levels set out below:

- correspondence (handling);
- customer service;
- forklift operator;
- invoicing;
- order acceptance;
- processing income;
- receiving money; and
- regular driver.

Grade 4—Certified tradesperson

Employees in this classification perform nursery duties using a more extensive range of skills and knowledge at a higher level than required of a Grade 3, having obtained and required to utilise the appropriate Accredited Trade Certificate or equivalent. They are responsible and accountable for their own work and may have responsibility for the work of up to three additional employees. They exercise initiative, discretion and judgment within the range of their skills and knowledge. Supervision is minimal.

Employees may be required to train other employees in the skills of their own grade and below by means of personal instruction and demonstration.

Additional duties may include:

- independent cultural decisions relevant to previous gradings (e.g. plant nutrition, merchandising, menus);
- payroll; and
- processing of incoming and outgoing invoices.

Grade 5

Employees in this classification have obtained the Accredited Trade Certificate or equivalent and perform nursery duties using a more extensive range of skills and knowledge at a level higher than that required of a Grade 4. They are responsible and accountable for their own work and may have responsibility for the work of a section or unit. They exercise initiative, discretion and judgment within the range of their skills and knowledge. Supervision is by means of reporting to senior management or proprietor.

Nursery Award 2010

Employees may be required to train other employees in the skills of their own grade and below by means of personal instruction and demonstration.

Employees will be classified at this level where the principal functions of their employment, as determined by the employer, require the exercise of any one or more of the skill levels set out below:

- ability to use a variety of computer packages (this may include, but not limited to, desktop publishing, spreadsheets, word processing, databases, etc.);
- allocation of accounts;
- co-ordination of production programs;
- creditor/debtor reconciliation;
- data reconciliation;
- design & implement fertiliser programs and pest control programs;
- design, install and use irrigation systems;
- landscape consultation and/or design;
- ordering stock;
- planning, co-ordination and implementation of nursery maintenance programs;
- preparation of daily reports;
- set targets; and
- set shift rosters.

Grade 6

Employees in this classification have obtained the Accredited Trade Certificate or equivalent and perform nursery duties using a more extensive range of skills and knowledge at a level higher than that required of a Grade 5. They are responsible and accountable for their own work and may have responsibility for the work of a section. They exercise initiative, discretion and judgment within the range of their skills and knowledge. Supervision is by means of reporting to management or proprietor.

Employees may be required to train other employees in the skills of their own grade and below by means of personal instruction and demonstration.

Employees will be classified at this level where the principal functions of their employment, as determined by the employer, require the exercise of any one or more of the skill levels set out below:

- analysing data;
- dispatch;
- key performance indicators for annual performance targets;
- monthly and annual reports;

Nursery Award 2010

- nursery manager;
- production planner;
- propagator (person appointed to take responsibility for control of propagating environments, scheduling propagation, selecting cuttage, budwood and other propagules); and
- senior grower or head grower.

Schedule C—National Training Wage

Sched C inserted by [PR994503, varied by PR997913]

C.1 Title

This is the National Training Wage Schedule.

C.2 Definitions

In this schedule:

adult trainee is a trainee who would qualify for the highest minimum wage in Wage Level A, B or C if covered by that wage level approved training means the training specified in the training contract

Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) is a national framework for qualifications in post-compulsory education and training out of school refers only to periods out of school beyond Year 10 as at the first of January in each year and is deemed to:

- (a) include any period of schooling beyond Year 10 which was not part of or did not contribute to a completed year of schooling;
- (b) include any period during which a trainee repeats in whole or part a year of schooling beyond Year 10; and
- (c) not include any period during a calendar year in which a year of schooling is completed relevant State or Territory training authority means the bodies in the relevant State or Territory which exercise approval powers in relation to traineeships and register training contracts under the relevant State or Territory vocational education and training legislation relevant State or Territory vocational education and training legislation means the following or any successor legislation:

Australian Capital Territory: Training and Tertiary Education Act 2003;

New South Wales: Apprenticeship and Traineeship Act 2001;

Northern Territory: Northern Territory Employment and Training Act 1991;

Queensland: Vocational Education, Training and Employment Act 2000;

South Australia: Training and Skills Development Act 2008;

Tasmania: Vocational Education and Training Act 1994;

Victoria: Education and Training Reform Act 2006; or

Western Australia: Vocational Education and Training Act 1996

trainee is an employee undertaking a traineeship under a training contract traineeship means a system of training which has been approved by the relevant State or Territory training authority, which meets the requirements of a training package developed by the relevant Industry Skills Council and endorsed by the National Quality Council, and which leads to an AQF certificate level qualification training contract means an agreement for a traineeship made between an employer and an employee which is registered with the relevant State or Territory training authority training package means the competency standards and associated assessment guidelines for an AQF certificate level qualification which have been endorsed for an industry or enterprise by the National Quality Council and placed on the National Training Information Service with the approval of the Commonwealth, State and Territory Ministers responsible for vocational education and training, and includes any relevant replacement training package

year 10 includes any year before Year 10

C.3 Coverage

- C.3.1 Subject to clauses C.3.2 to C.3.6 of this schedule, this schedule applies in respect of an employee covered by this award who is undertaking a traineeship whose training package and AQF certificate level is allocated to a wage level by Appendix C1 to this schedule or by clause C.5.4 of this schedule.
- C.3.2 This schedule only applies to AQF Certificate Level IV traineeships for which a relevant AQF Certificate Level III traineeship is listed in Appendix C1 to this schedule.
- C.3.3 This schedule does not apply to the apprenticeship system or to any training program which applies to the same occupation and achieves essentially the same training outcome as an existing apprenticeship in an award as at 25 June 1997.
- C.3.4 This schedule does not apply to qualifications not identified in training packages or to qualifications in training packages which are not identified as appropriate for a traineeship.
- C.3.5 Where the terms and conditions of this schedule conflict with other terms and conditions of this award dealing with traineeships, the other terms and conditions of this award prevail.
- C.3.6 At the conclusion of the traineeship, this schedule ceases to apply to the employee.

C.4 Types of Traineeship

The following types of traineeship are available under this schedule:

- C.4.1 a full-time traineeship based on 38 ordinary hours per week, with 20% of ordinary hours being approved training; and
- C.4.2 a part-time traineeship based on less than 38 ordinary hours per week, with 20% of ordinary hours being approved training solely on-the-job or partly on-the-job and partly off-the-job, or where training is fully off-the-job.

Plus 5 or more years out of school	15.07

(d) School-based traineeships

Subject to clauses C.5.2(f) and C.5.3 of this schedule, the minimum wages for a trainee undertaking a school-based AQF Certificate Level I–III traineeship whose training package and AQF certificate levels are allocated to Wage Levels A, B or C by Appendix C1 are as follows when the trainee works ordinary hours:

Year of schooling
Year 11 or lower	Year 12
per hour	per hour
8.42	9.28

(e) AQF Certificate Level IV traineeships

(i) Subject to clauses C.5.2(f) and C.5.3 of this schedule, the minimum wages for a trainee undertaking a part-time AQF Certificate Level IV traineeship are the minimum wages for the relevant part-time AQF Certificate Level III traineeship with the addition of 3.8% to those minimum wages.

(ii) Subject to clauses C.5.2(f) and C.5.3 of this schedule, the minimum wages for an adult trainee undertaking a part-time AQF Certificate Level IV traineeship are as follows, provided that the relevant wage level is that for the relevant AQF Certificate Level III traineeship:

Wage level	First year of traineeship	Second and subsequent years of traineeship
	per hour	per hour
Wage Level A	17.80	18.49
Wage Level B	17.17	17.83
Wage Level C	15.63	16.22

(f) Calculating the actual minimum wage

- (i) Where the full-time ordinary hours of work are not 38 or an average of 38 per week, the appropriate hourly minimum wage is obtained by multiplying the relevant minimum wage in clauses C.5.2(a)–(e) of this schedule by 38 and then dividing the figure obtained by the full-time ordinary hours of work per week.
- (ii) Where the approved training for a part-time traineeship is provided fully off-the-job by a registered training organisation, for example at school or at TAFE, the relevant minimum wage in clauses C.5.2(a)–(e) of this schedule applies to each ordinary hour worked by the trainee.
- (iii) Where the approved training for a part-time traineeship is undertaken solely on-the-job or partly on-the-job and partly off-the-job, the relevant minimum wage in clauses C.5.2(a)–(e) of this schedule minus 20% applies to each ordinary hour worked by the trainee.

C.5.3 Other minimum wage provisions

- (a) An employee who was employed by an employer immediately prior to becoming a trainee with that employer must not suffer a reduction in their minimum wage per week or per hour by virtue of becoming a trainee. Casual loadings will be disregarded when determining whether the employee has suffered a reduction in their minimum wage.
- (b) If a qualification is converted from an AQF Certificate Level II to an AQF Certificate Level III traineeship, or from an AQF Certificate Level III to an AQF Certificate Level IV traineeship, then the trainee must be paid the next highest minimum wage provided in this schedule, where a higher minimum wage is provided for the new AQF certificate level.

C.5.4 Default wage rate

The minimum wage for a trainee undertaking an AQF Certificate Level I–III traineeship whose training package and AQF certificate level are not allocated to a wage level by Appendix C1 is the relevant minimum wage under this schedule for a trainee undertaking an AQF Certificate to Level I–III traineeship whose training package and AQF certificate level are allocated to Wage Level B.

C.6 Employment conditions

- C.6.1 A trainee undertaking a school-based traineeship may, with the agreement of the trainee, be paid an additional loading of 25% on all ordinary hours worked instead of paid annual leave, paid personal/carer's leave and paid absence on public holidays, provided that where the trainee works on a public holiday then the public holiday provisions of this award apply.
- C.6.2 A trainee is entitled to be released from work without loss of continuity of employment and to payment of the appropriate wages to attend any training and assessment specified in, or associated with, the training contract.
- C.6.3 Time spent by a trainee, other than a trainee undertaking a school-based traineeship, in attending any training and assessment specified in, or associated with, the training contract is to be regarded as time worked for the employer for the purposes of calculating the trainee's wages and determining the trainee's employment conditions.

- C.6.4 Subject to clause C.3.5 of this schedule, all other terms and conditions of this award apply to a trainee unless specifically varied by this schedule.

Schedule D—Supported Wage System

Varied by [PR994503, PR998748]

D.1 This schedule defines the conditions which will apply to employees who because of the effects of a disability are eligible for a supported wage under the terms of this award.

D.2 In this schedule:

approved assessor means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the supported wage system to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the supported wage system assessment instrument means the tool provided for under the supported wage system that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the supported wage system disability support pension means the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme relevant minimum wage means the minimum wage prescribed in this award for the class of work for which an employee is engaged supported wage system means the Commonwealth Government system to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability, as documented in the Supported Wage System Handbook. The Handbook is available from the following website: www.jobaccess.gov.au

SWS wage assessment agreement means the document in the form required by the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations that records the employee's productive capacity and agreed wage rate

D.3 Eligibility criteria

D.3.1 Employees covered by this schedule will be those who are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level required within the class of work for which the employee is engaged under this award, because of the effects of a disability on their productive capacity and who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a disability support pension.

D.3.2 This schedule does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provisions of workers compensation legislation or any provision of this award relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their employment.

D.4 Supported wage rates

D.4.1 Employees to whom this schedule applies will be paid the applicable percentage of the relevant minimum wage according to the following schedule:

Assessed capacity (clause D.5)	Relevant minimum wage
10	10
20	20
30	30
40	40
50	50
60	60
70	70
80	80
90	90

D.4.2 varied by [PR994503, PR998748 ppc 01Jul10]

D.4.2 Provided that the minimum amount payable must be not less than $73 per week.

D.4.3 Where an employee's assessed capacity is 10%, they must receive a high degree of assistance and support.

D.5 Assessment of capacity

D.5.1 For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the relevant minimum wage, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System by an approved assessor, having consulted the employer and employee and, if the employee so desires, a union which the employee is eligible to join.

D.5.2 All assessments made under this schedule must be documented in an SWS wage assessment agreement, and retained by the employer as a time and wages record in accordance with the Act.

D.6 Lodgement of SWS wage assessment agreement

D.6.1 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

D.6.1 All SWS wage assessment agreements under the conditions of this schedule, including the appropriate percentage of the relevant minimum wage to be paid to the employee, must be lodged by the employer with Fair Work Australia.

D.6.2 varied by [PR994503 from 01Jan10]

D.6.2 All SWS wage assessment agreements must be agreed and signed by the employee and employer parties to the assessment. Where a union which has an interest in the award is not a party to the assessment, the assessment will be referred by Fair Work Australia to the union by certified mail and the agreement will take effect unless an objection is notified to Fair Work Australia within 10 working days.

D.7 Review of assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage should be subject to annual or more frequent review on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review must be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the supported wage system.

D.8 Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage will apply to the relevant minimum wage only. Employees covered by the provisions of this schedule will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as other workers covered by this award on a pro rata basis.

D.9 Workplace adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this schedule must take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

D.10 Trial period

D.10.1 In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an employer may employ a person under the provisions of this schedule for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding four weeks) may be needed.

D.10.2 During that trial period the assessment of capacity will be undertaken and the percentage of the relevant minimum wage for a continuing employment relationship will be determined.

D.10.3 varied by [PR994503, PR998748 ppc 01Jul10]

D.10.3 The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period must be no less than $73 per week.

D.10.4 Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialled.

D.10.5 Where the employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment will be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under clause D.5.
